An illustration of a fair trade market stall. A woman in a blue top and red skirt stands behind a counter, holding up a product. She is surrounded by various goods like coffee, tea, and produce. Four people are interacting with her: a woman in a blue top and red pants, a young girl in a red dress, a man in a yellow shirt, and a woman in an orange top and blue jeans. The background shows a city skyline under a pink sky with stylized clouds.
